FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRIMARY HEALTH MEDICAL GROUP WELCOMES
TWO PHYSICIAN ASSISTANTS, TO URGENT CARE PRACTICE.

Boise, February 26 -- Primary Health Medical Group is pleased to announce the addition of two new Physician Assistants to the Urgent Care Practice. As part of Primary Health Medical Group's Urgent Care Practice, Becky Wells and Nathan Church will work in one of the group's nine Urgent Care clinics located throughout the Treasure Valley.

Physician Assistant Becky Wells is a graduate of Idaho State University and comes to Primary Health Medical Group from Madison Valley Medical Center in Montana where she provided ambulatory primary care, inpatient care and solo emergency room on-call coverage. She also has experience in a busy ambulatory care center in Washington.

Physician Assistant Nathan Church is a graduate of Southern Utah University and the Physician Assistant Program at Idaho State University. He also received his Master of Physician Assistant Studies with Specialization in Emergency Medicine from the University of Nebraska Medical Center. He has experience in both Urgent Care clinics and Emergency Rooms, which will serve him well in our busy Urgent Care clinics.

Boise-based Primary Health Medical Group is a multi-specialty medical group that was created by physicians who have practiced in Idaho for more than twenty years. The group sees over 200,000 patient visits a year through 11 clinics located in Boise, Meridian, Eagle, Nampa, and Caldwell. The majority of the clinics offer appointment family practice and urgent care services and are staffed by family practitioners, physician assistants and nurse practitioners. The group also has physicians in pediatrics, obstetrics and gynecology, dermatology, occupational medicine, and ear, nose, and throat.
